spans up to 13 metres

- The ZL2 is a modern and sleek retractable screen for large openings.
- It can span up to 6 and a half metres for a single sided unit.
- And up to 13 metres for a double sided unit.
- The screen glides smoothly over a 12.5 mm low profile track.
- With a fully flush handle and concealed fixings throughout, the ZL2 fits harmoniously in any architectural setting.

- The screen works with various external door configurations including bi-fold doors, sliding doors and stacking doors to name a few. Another great feature of the ZL2 is that it can even be used on large corner openings.
- The ZL2 can be fitted either internally or externally and comes in a variety of powder coat colours.
- The ZL2 is constructed using high quality materials and components that include Freedom's innovative braking system and fully anchored mesh for high wind resistance

- With its large spanning options, its low profile construction, flush handles and sleek design the ZL2 is the ultimate retractable screen.
