AMÉLIE

Rogerseller introduces Amélie, a contemporary interpretation of the traditional claw-foot bath. Inspired by a traditional chaise lounge 'the Méridienne', a 19th century French name given to an asymmetrical daybed with higher headrest and lower footrest.

Designed to be a furniture piece, the clean lines and fine edges provide a sense of lightness, while the lounge-like wrap around head support promotes comfort and relaxation. The single piece is manufactured in Lucite acrylic, presenting a seamless contour which tapers into the narrow stainless steel legs.

Amélie designed and manufactured by Rogerseller, is a unique character that will make a modest statement to any bathroom.
