VersaPro stands as a highly versatile and dynamic dance floor, offering dancers a surface that perfectly balances grip and speed. It excels as an excellent choice for soft shoe dance styles like ballet, jazz, contemporary, and hip hop. With its exceptional durability and crisp sound production, VersaPro becomes the ultimate option, especially for percussive dancing such as tap. Its flexible installation options, including permanent gluing or easy taping, make it a preferred choice in dance studios, performance centers, and stages, known for its reliability and adaptability.

Features & Benefits:

VersaPro's surface provides the perfect balance of grip and speed, ideal for soft shoe dance styles like ballet, jazz, contemporary, and hip hop. With exceptional durability for tap-friendliness and a crisp sound, it's the ultimate choice for percussive dancing.

VersaPro offers versatile installation options to meet your specific needs. It can be permanently glued down for a fixed setup or easily taped down for future removal and relocation.

All VersaPro vinyl products are built with heavy-duty fiberglass reinforcement layers, which are crucial for maintaining the shape and ensuring the longevity of your floor over an extended period.
