CREASTYLE Pro by HVG

THE recently released CRESTYLE Pro range of high-pressure decorative and real metal laminates from HVG Decorative Building Products has received an overwhelming response from design professionals and specifiers.

CREASTYLE Pro combines the latest modern trends from international markets to ensure an innovative and market-leading range of internal applications.

Providing an almost infinite range of design options, the new range features 45 new trend-leading colours, finishes and references, including two new and unique surface finishes called Rigato and Sculptured.

CREASTYLE Pro is ideal for a whole host of applications and projects, from architecture and interior design to retail design and commercial fitouts to hospitality design for pubs, clubs, restaurants and bars.

New references are now available from HVG distributions centres nationally.
